automatic. The same setup was working fine in 4.7 without add-ins. I get a "no project found" error, when I want to create a new project. It lists projects, but when I hit "create new project" nothing happens. Any idea?

EDIT: It seems like the.metadata folder is the trouble. The structure looks like this: myFolder\PROJECT_FOLDER\.metadata I was missing the.metadata folder in 4.7. I found a plugin that automatically create projects in my Eclipse, and it is working fine, so I'm gonna use it instead.

A: I had the same problem, and it worked for me to rename my workspace to something else and select it as a new workspace in Flash Builder. It seems like the.metadata folder is the problem. Backstreet Boys star Brian Littrell has broken his silence after the news first emerged he had AIDS. The Backstreet Boy shocked fans worldwide when he disclosed he was a heterosexual man who was struggling with the symptoms of HIV/AIDS last week, but has since been rallying support for a cure for the virus. In the latest episode of his Instagram Stories, the singer shared the news he has been undergoing treatment. He posted a picture of his front door and added a caption that read: "I have been fighting a battle that only I know of. I have been suffering from HIV. I have been surviving this..." He then said he was pleased he had been able to keep this "secret so well" for the past year or so. A week earlier, he had put out a tweet of support for gay and transgender
