PROOF FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT MDDY Online Proof Viewer. The Bible, the Catholic Bible is the doctrinal and apostolic deposit of the Catholic Church. The Bible is the source of all wisdom, truth, and life. It is the primary source of Christian faith and practice; includes the Gospels, Acts, Pauline epistles, and Revelation. A true Bible possesses the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Bible or Bible is a term for the collection of the Hebrew Old Testament and the Greek New Testament. These are called the "textus receptus", meaning "received text", "received tradition", or "received version", and are considered by many Christians to be the standard texts of the Christian faith. The Catholic Bible, the Bible of the Catholic Church, is the same as the Bible of other Christian groups, except that it has been materially altered to include different writings from the earlier period that are not included in the standard biblical text. The original Bible has not been tampered with. The Catholic Bible consists of the autographs of the books of the Christian Scriptures, the earliest written copies of which were made during the 2nd century. The Greek New Testament contains 21 books, while the Hebrew Old Testament contains 27 books. These books are linked by way of the letters of St.

Paul, who was an apostle from the Church of Antioch (modern day Turkey) (see Letter to the Romans). St. Paul was instrumental in gathering and transporting the autographs of each of the books of the New Testament. A simple, faith-forming Catholic bible is the most basic reading material that new Christian converts should have; it can be carried in the pocket of a person's most frequently worn articles of clothing and is intended to be spiritually nour 6d1f23a050
